TheLadders.co.uk will be advertising once again on TV in 2010!

The 2010 campaign will focus on how a specialist executive site like TheLadders.co.uk delivers the most targeted and relevant, biggest and best opportunity for them.

The campaign will run across major terrestrial including ITV and Channel Four and digital channels including Sky Sports and Sky News during January and February, with the aim of reaching the many job seekers who will be looking for a new role at the start of the year. The TV campaign will be supported with an online programme targeting ABC1 30-55 year old senior executives.
